Middle Child Rehearsal Room

About Middle Child

We are a Hull-based company creating gig theatre that brings people together for a good night out with big ideas. We tell untold stories which capture the electrifying moment when the beat drops, mixing original live music with bold new writing. Our events are live and loud, making sense of the modern world.

About the space

Our rehearsal room is located in the upper ground floor of our suite in the Bond 31 warehouse, on High Street in Hull.

- The room's dimensions are 10.35m x 7.45m x 2.45m
- There is an adjoining kitchen available for use with an honesty pot
- Toilets are on the first floor and an accessible toilet is located on the lower ground floor
- There is a lift and staircase to access all floors in the building
- The room's capacity is 50 people. The number of people in the space must be detailed to us beforehand via the booking form. If there are any changes to this, please let us know.
- Please ensure you keep the room clean and tidy

Accessibility

If you have any access requirements, please let us know through the booking form.

Our accessible entrance is the second door on the left as you walk down the alley way.

A map, produced by Hull Museums and available on our website, shows a level route around the cobbles of the High Street, using paved surfaces and drop kerbs.

First aid

There is a first aid kit on the wall of the rehearsal room and the names of the building's first aiders stated next to it.

Fire safety

The fire assembly point is located down the side of Lion and Key pub.

Car parking

Available in the High Street car park, which has an uneven gravel surface, or the new Fruit Market multi-storey car park, a three-minute walk away, on Blackfriargate.

Security

The building is secure and will be locked overnight, so feel free to leave your kit here, if you have the room booked. However, we can't offer insurance for your belongings.

Other facilities

Writing Room

The room includes a table, chairs and sofa bed. You can request to book to use this during our usual hours (Tuesday to Friday, 9am-6pm), through the booking form.

Theatre Library

Our library is open to the public on Tuesdays (10am-1pm) and Friday (2-5pm), with over 2,000 scripts and reference books available to borrow.

Hot desks

Finally, we offer multiple hot desking spaces next to our library with access to free Wi-Fi as a drop-in service, during our usual hours. Feel free to give us a ring or a message beforehand.

How to book

Bookings can be made using the form on our website. Please give at least a week's notice when booking. Please be aware we may not be able to accommodate if this is not given.

Your project

Please let us know the details of your project/what it is you will be using the space for via the booking form. This is so we can check it is appropriate and to highlight and prevent any risks.

Use of equipment

Please let us know of any equipment you intend to bring with you via the booking form, for safety purposes. If there is any equipment you would like provided, you can request this through the booking form.

Cancellation

If you would like to cancel your booking for any reason, please give as much notice as possible by emailing Lucy Foy or Emily Anderton. This is so we can release the space to other people who may wish to use it.

Storage of personal details

Personal details provided through the booking form, such as name and email address, will be deleted after six months.

Tell the world

We'd really appreciate any publicity you could give us while using our space. Feel free to share photos on social media and tag us, using @middlechildhull on Twitter, Instagram or Facebook.
